

Summer Holiday Fun for Families at Southwark Cathedral

The Heritage Craft and Mudlarking Festival | 25 July, 10am-4pm

Discover the stories beneath London's streets and riverbanks in a day bringing together mudlarks, makers and archaeologists.

Across the day, you can enjoy craft demonstrations and heritage stalls, family-friendly drop-in activities, talks with mudlarks and heritage experts, an exhibition of mudlark finds from the Thames. Tickets from £4.

Summer of Stories | 27 Jul - 1 Sep

Enjoy a programme of storytelling and creativity, inspired by our social justice theme of literacy.

Throughout the summer, families can follow our interactive Story Trail, relax in the Reading Zone, enjoy live storytelling, discover fascinating museum objects, and get creative with Creature Crafts

All activities are free, with storytelling sessions free to book in advance.

For more information and to book, head to www.cathedral.southwark.anglican.org/whats-on/and filter by 'family'