Notes from the Head Teacher

It has been a fantastic week this week with children getting back into the routine of school and enjoying their learning. It was nice to see so many of you at the “Meet the Teacher” sessions on Tuesday, I hope you found them to be helpful and informative.

We are really looking forward to Roald Dahl day on Monday - I am sure there are going to be some amazing costumes and that the children will have some great fun taking part in the planned activities.

I look forward to sharing some pictures with you next week.

Have a lovely weekend

Reflection

It was lovely to welcome Lucy, Jono's wife, in school on Thursday for collective worship. The children enjoyed hearing all about Moses and reflecting on the story and what it means to them.

We spoke to the children about the new year and new beginnings and explained that if they put their minds to something and show resilience, they can achieve great things.

“I can do all things through him who strengthens me.”

Philippians 4:13

Playground Supervision

Obviously drop off time is very busy, but can we please ask that younger children are handed to school staff in the morning. Also, please make sure children are supervised once collected from teachers in the afternoon and try to keep them off the play equipment. Hopefully this will keep everyone safe. Thank you for your support with this.

Year 4 Anglo Saxon Day

On Wednesday, Year 4 started their new history topic with an Anglo-Saxon day! The children had a drama workshop to explore what life was like during Anglo-Saxon times; they took on different roles such as farmers, kings, warriors and we even had our own Beowulf and Grendel! Later in the day, the children explored invasion and settlement in more depth and then created their own illuminated letter. They are looking forward to our next history lessons – well done, Year 4!

Harvest Festival Service

We will be holding our Harvest Festival service at St John's Church on Thursday 2nd October at 9.30am and all parents are warmly invited to attend. Further information about the service and the charity we will be supporting will follow shortly.
